Dear Robert,

I hope that all is well with you and yours. I am on a quest to find our Jonathan Lawrence, father of Mary, John, Nathaniel and Deborah of Bennington.

I find it a coincidence that John Lawrence named his son Pitt. From the genealogical book of John Lawrence, I cut and pasted below, a piece where we have a Jonathan Lawrence married a Mary Pitt. As you know, in those days, they would often name a son by his mother's maiden name. Hence Pitt?

This Jonathan Lawrence (1752-1817) is shown buried in Findagrave.com at Norwich City Cemetery, Norwich CT. Son of Jonathan Lawrence and Rachel Wright. This Jonathan was born in 1724 at Woburn, MA.

FYI, below are the graves of Pitt and Phyla Lawrence.

This quest is still a mystery! Best, DAR

Bob,

Sept. 3, 2004

When I received the Barber family pages from Marj Henninge, I asked her to put my name and address out on the inte-net with phone number. I never had any response. But I so grateful to have the information going back to R.I. Would have to be proved with other data.

Glad you came up with the name of Heman because it rang a bell of how much I had researched so far.

Dear Sir:

Will you please give me from your records, the date of the enlistment of Daniel Barber into the service of the United States; also the place where he enlisted, the Regiment and Company he enlisted in, the date of his discharge.

He was a pensioner of the War of 1812 but I have not the number of his pension certificate. You will find his pension records by referring to the pension record of Hannah N. Barber his widow. The number of the pension certificate of Hannah N. Barber is 33850. I desire this information for the purpose of proving my right to admission into the order of United States Daughters

Dear Persons,

An 1812 Pension file for Daniel Barber, Jr., Cert. No. 23276, contained a letter from Maude A. Hopkins Eastman. She was the gt.gd.dau. of Hannah Lawrence Barber and Daniel Barber, Jr. (The Jr. was not used in later years.) He served from N.Y.

Do your records show that Maude Eastman joined your society as her letter indicated a desire to do so? Her letter to Pension Office was in 1906.

If you will let me know the cost, I would like to have a copy of her application. As I live in Arlington, VA, a telephone response would be welcome.

Thank you for your help in this matter.

Sincerely,

Ruth A. Hoeper
